

Climbing Center in Eichstätt (DE)

Empower your facade

Construction of a modern climbing center of the German Alpine Club with a 169 m² large solar facade on a wooden substructure on the south side of the envelope. The JURABLOC impresses with the unique combination from natural stone facade and different materials.

16.6 MWh

Energy yield per year

5,800 kg

CO₂ savings per year based on country-specific emission factors

Black
B001

Customer:	Bauer Energietechnik
Architects:	Seibold + Seibold, Eichstätt
Project realization:	2016
Location:	Eichstätt, Germany
Building typ:	Sports hall / new building Public building
Facade area:	169 m ²
Number of modules:	160 modules
Plant power:	21.6 kWp
Color:	SKALA Black B001
Project partners:	Bauer Energietechnik, Ingolstadt
Photos:	Albrecht Voss